RHUEMATISM. RHUEMATISM.

Dr. Drake's Panacea is used with the greatest success in Rheumatic Comphints, especially such as chronic. It cures by driving out all impurities and foul humours which have accumulated in the system, which are the cause of Rheumatism, Gout, and Swellings of the joints. Other remedies a metimes give temporary relief; this entirely cradicates the disease from the system, even when the limbs and bones are dreadfully swellen.

CONSUMPTION.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.—Coughs, Catarrh, Brinchitis, Scitting of Bland, Asthma, Difficult or profuse Expect ention, Hee is Flush, Night Sweats, Pain in the side &c. have been cared, and can be with as much certainty as any other disease. A specific has I mg been sought for, but in vain until the discovery of Dr. Drake's Pauscea. It is mild and safe but certain and effications in its operation, and cannot possibly injure the most delicate condition in. We would carnestly recommend those afficied to give it a trail—and we believe they will not have occasion to regret it. The system is cleamed and strengthened, the ulcers on the lungs are healed, and the patients gradually regain their usual health and strength. Read the following: CONSUMPTION.

TESTIMONY.

PRILLA., Dec. 14th, 1947.

Dran Sin:—In reply to your questi in respecting the use of Dr. Drake's Panacea, I will my, that although a perior disbeliever in the existence of a PANACEA, or cure for ALL diseases, however valuable it may be in certain c undit as of the system, still I have believed that a cure for Consumpdiseases, however valuable it may be in certain e aciti and of the system, still I have believed that a cure for Consumption would be diseaved source or later, and curt out of the me to try your medicine in two very inveterate cases. They were promuneed by the attending physicians to be removed by the attending physicians to be removed. One of the persons had been under the trentment of several very able practiti mers for a number of years, and they said she had "old fashi med Consumption combine with Secrotia," and that she might linger for a medicine, but e said not be permanently relieved. In both cases the effect of the Panacea has been mestgratifying. Only four or five bottles were used by one of the persons before she began to improve rapidly. The other took about ten. I will only add that familiar as I now with a sacumption by inheritance and by extensive observation as a study, and knowing also the injurious efforts in time cases out of ten of tar, b meset, and other vegetable tonics, as well as of many of the expectorants and redatives, I should never have recommended the use of Drake's Panacea if I had a theen acquainted with the ingreedlents. Suffice it to say that these are tee ammended by our most popular and scientific physicians, and in their present cambined state, form probably the best alterative that has ever been made. The care is in acc velamor with a theory of Consumption breached in France a few years ago, by one of her most entired which admit of no dispute, and now established by facts which admit of an dispute, and now established by facts which admit of an dispute, and now established by facts which admit of an dispute.

Very Respectually Fours, L. C. GUNA.

To use the impusage of another, "Dr. Drake's Panases in always adutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not as Opiate—it is not and Expectorant. It is not intended to built the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a grand healing and curative compound, the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto uncomparred malady. And any pers spatially difficult with this dread disease, will be just to himself and his friends, if he go down to the grave without testing its virtues. A single battle, in most cases, will produce a favorable change in the condition of any patient, however low."

TO THE LADIES.

Ladies of pale camplexity and consumptive habits, and such as are debiliated by three obstructions which fermiles are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two, to bloom vigor. It is by far the best remedy ever discovered for weakly children, and such as have lead humous; being pleasant, they take it. It immediately restores the appetite, strength and color.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human fratue. Persons, all weakness and fasting before taking it, at once become robust and fall of energy under its influence. It immediate counternets the nervelessness of the female frame.

The intelligence respecting the insurrec-tion in Lombardy has been confirmed, with the further important feature that the King of Sardinia, at the head of an army of 30,000 troops, crossed the Piedmontese territory into Lombardy, issuing a declaration of war as he passed the frontiers against Austria, and marched to Milan. The Austrians, defeated at every point, fled as he approached, and having successfully been driven from Palma, Porescia, and Delensean, endeavored to establish themselves in the Nunces. The Italian duchies have burst out into an insurrection. In Austria proper every thing seems disorganized, and amidst the chaotic confusion which prevails, it is quite impossible to fix the hourly changing scene. It is anticipated that the Austrian General, Radelsky, who is afraid to enter Mantua for want of provisions, will be compelled to eapitulate upon the appearance of the Sardinia troops. It is said that the disposable force will shortly be at the command of Charles Albert, of not less than 250,000 men. With such an army not only will all Lombardy be liberated, but Austria may be threatened even at the gates of satisfaction and rebellion: The great demonstration of Chartists, which was to come off in London on the 10th inst., has been forbidden by the English government. All the arrangements for the procession were going on satisfactorily, the carriage for conveying the petition, and the banners, ineignia, &c., decided on, when Sir V. Gray approunced to Parliament, on the 6th inst., the determination of Government to allow neither the assemblage nor procession to take place. A proclamation appeared, forbidding all persons from attending the meeting. Resolutions, calling those meetings, and for the issuing of a counter proclamation, were at once agreed to. The members in the procession are not to carry arms.

The government has seemingly determined on bringing matters to an issue, and large bodies of cavalry, infantry and artillery have been drafted into the metropolis, so that it is thought the force in the city cannot be less than 10,000 men. Folund.
